Note: As of XL Fortran V9.1, IBM will not provide a separate program offering for the XL Fortran Run-Time Environment.

When V9.1 or V10.1 of XL Fortran Enterprise Edition for AIX is ordered, the runtime component is shipped with the compiler on the same media.

Solution developers who market applications that require the XL Fortran Enterprise Edition runtime component may redistribute the runtime with their applications to their customers. Note that their customers will not receive support directly from IBM; to receive support directly from IBM, their customers will be required to purchase IBM XL Fortran Enterprise Edition for AIX licenses.

The V9.1 and V10.1 of XL Fortran Enterprise Edition runtime component for AIX is also provided as a non-warranted download from the IBM XL Fortran support Web site at no charge. This runtime component is to be used only for applications developed with IBM XL Fortran Enterprise Edition for AIX.
