Overview

Trusted, accurate, and timely information is imperative for businesses to make intelligent decisions that benefit their bottom line. The IBM InfoSphere Information Server family of products offers different management approaches, including through dynamic data warehousing, master data management, event-driven data quality, and extract, transform, and load (ETL) process optimization. Key to the solution is the rapid and timely delivery of data changes.

IBM InfoSphere Change Data Delivery helps provide rapid and timely delivery of data changes for InfoSphere data warehouses, InfoSphere DataStage™ ETL processes, InfoSphere QualityStage data quality processes, and InfoSphere master data management systems to ensure that these systems have updated and trusted data to make good business decisions. IBM InfoSphere Change Data Delivery:

- Enhances new and existing investments in IBM InfoSphere DataStage, InfoSphere QualityStage, InfoSphere Warehouse, and InfoSphere Master Data Management Server
- Integrates directly with InfoSphere DataStage, enabling real-time ETL processes and event-driven data cleansing
- Helps ensure that critical information is readily available to lines of business, thereby increasing visibility and productivity

Planned availability date

October 20, 2009 (electronic software delivery)

October 21, 2009 (media and documentation)

Description

IPLA and Subscription and Support considerations

IPLA licenses can be transferred from one machine to another within, but not limited to an enterprise. You may aggregate the capacity for all the processors the product is operated on to achieve a more economic price. This will result in a single Proof of Entitlement (PoE). It is your responsibility to manage the distribution of Value Units within the limits of the entitlement of the product license.

Subscription and Support must cover the same capacity as the product license entitlement. Subscription and Support will be available in the country in which the agreement is made.

Education support

Education support

Available training offerings include client onsite training, public training at IBM facilities, and remote learning via FlexLearning. Through client onsite training, IBM delivers standard or customized training to meet the requirements of its clients. IBM can also provide mobile academies for a rental fee to minimize clients' setup activities.

IBM public training simplifies the process by providing the complete environment for standard course deliveries and giving students the ability to learn without the distractions of everyday responsibilities. Public training is offered on a regular schedule worldwide. For more information on public instructor-led training, visit

<http://www.ibm.com/software/data/ips/services/learning.html>

The newly enhanced FlexLearning program enables clients to attend training on their own schedules at their own locations. This program offers state-of-the-art technology to deliver highly valuable training at minimum cost. All current courses are approximately three hours in length and offer a valuable learn-by-doing, self-paced format.

For more information on any of the training offerings, contact

iiseduc@us.ibm.com

Planning information

Software Subscription and Support (also referred to as Software Maintenance) is included with licenses purchased through Passport Advantage and Passport Advantage Express. Product upgrades and technical support are provided by the Software Subscription and Support offering as described in the Agreements. Product upgrades provide the latest versions and releases to entitled software, and technical support provides voice and electronic access to IBM support organizations, worldwide.

IBM includes one year of Software Subscription and Support with each program license acquired. The initial period of Software Subscription and Support can be extended by the purchase of a renewal option, if available.

Charge metrics definitions

Processor Value Unit

Processor Value Unit (PVU) is a unit of measure by which this program is licensed. The PVU entitlements are based on processor families (vendors and brands). A Proof of Entitlement (PoE) must be obtained for the appropriate number of PVUs based on the level or tier of all processor cores activated and available for use by the program on the server. Some programs allow licensing to less than the full capacity of the server's activated processor cores, sometimes referred to as sub-capacity licensing. For programs which offer sub-capacity licensing, if a server is partitioned utilizing eligible partitioning technologies, then a PoE must be obtained for the appropriate number of PVUs based on all activated processor cores available for use in each partition where the program runs or is managed by the program. Refer to the International Passport Advantage Agreement Attachment for sub-capacity terms or the program's License Information to determine applicable sub-capacity terms. The PVU entitlements are specific to the program and may not be exchanged, interchanged, or aggregated with PVU entitlements of another program.

For general overview of PVUs for processor families (vendors and brands), go to http://www-306.ibm.com/software/lotus/passportadvantage/pvu_licensing_for_customers.html

Warranty

IBM warrants that when the program is used in the specified operating environment, it will conform to its specifications. The warranty applies only to the unmodified portion of the program. IBM does not warrant uninterrupted or error-free operation of the program or that IBM will correct all program defects. You are responsible for the results obtained from the use of the program.

IBM provides you with access to IBM databases containing information on known program defects, defect corrections, restrictions, and bypasses at no additional charge. Consult the IBM Software Support Handbook for further information at

<http://www.ibm.com/support/handbook>

IBM will maintain this information for at least one year after the original licensee acquires the program (warranty period).

Money-back guarantee

If for any reason you are dissatisfied with the program and you are the original licensee, you may obtain a refund of the amount you paid for it, if within 30 days of your invoice date you return the program and its PoE to the party from whom you obtained it. If you downloaded the program, you may contact the party from whom you acquired it for instructions on how to obtain the refund.

- For programs acquired under the IBM International Passport Advantage Agreement, this term applies only to your first acquisition of the program.

Authorization for use on home/portable computer

The program may be stored on the primary machine and another machine, provided that the program is not in active use on both machines at the same time. You may not copy and use this program on another computer without paying additional license fees.
