Overview

IBM Security™ Verify Dedicated is an addition to IBM Security Verify, an identity and access management (IAM) solution that resides in the cloud. Security Verify enables entities (people or things) to access resources (applications or data) through their device of choice. IT administrators can assign an identity to each entity, authenticate them when they log in, authorize them to access specified resources, and monitor and manage the identities throughout their lifecycle.

Security Verify Dedicated provides a highly available and dedicated cloud instance for workforce, consumer, citizen, and classroom enterprises that includes single sign-on, multifactor authentication, adaptive access, lifecycle management, and analytics without any shared services with other clients. With this offering, dedicated instances of Security Verify typically achieve double the scale of a commercial tenant for those handling large-scale operations for consumer-facing services. Clients can onboard millions of users and hundreds of tenants all within their own dedicated instance of Security Verify SaaS.

IBM Security Verify Expert Advisor is an optional add-on to Security Verify. Security Verify Expert Advisor provides up to 10 hours of the following features and focus areas:

- A trusted advisor to help organizations more rapidly achieve benefits and value from their Security Verify investment
- Enhancements to an organization's capability to develop a broad range of skills that span full process implementation of a Security Verify subscription
- Regular check points during the implementation process to address challenges or architectural design decisions

Such information is provided subject to the following terms. IT system security involves protecting systems and information through prevention, detection, and response to improper access from within and outside your enterprise. Improper access can result in information being altered, destroyed, misappropriated, or misused, or can result in damage to or misuse of your systems, including for use in attacks on others. No IT system or product should be considered completely secure and no single product, service, or security measure can be completely effective in preventing improper use or access. IBM systems, products, and services are designed to be part of a lawful, comprehensive security approach, which will necessarily involve additional operational procedures, and may require other systems, products, or services to be most effective.

Important: IBM does not warrant that any systems, products, or services are immune from, or will make your enterprise immune from, the malicious or illegal conduct of any party.

IBM Support

IBM Support is your gateway to technical support tools and resources that are designed to help you save time and simplify support. IBM Support can help you find answers to questions, download fixes, troubleshoot, submit and track problem cases, and build skills. Learn and stay informed about the transformation of IBM Support, including new tools, new processes, and new capabilities, by going to the IBM Support Insider.

For additional support options visit the IBM Support Community.

IBM will provide product technical support for a minimum of three years from the date the most recent product version is made generally available by IBM. Fixes will be provided for the current release. Extended support will not be offered after the offering is withdrawn from support.

Statement of good security practices

IT system security involves protecting systems and information through intrusion prevention, detection, and response to improper access from within and outside your enterprise. Improper access can result in information being altered, destroyed, or misappropriated or can result in misuse of your systems to attack others. Without a comprehensive approach to security, no IT system or product should be considered completely secure and no single product or security measure can be completely effective in preventing improper access. IBM systems and products are designed to be part of a regulatory compliant, comprehensive security approach, which will necessarily involve additional operational procedures, and may require other systems, products, or services to be most effective.

Important: IBM does not warrant that any systems, products, or services are immune from, or will make your enterprise immune from, the malicious or illegal conduct of any party.
