5127 IBM STG FlashSystem FlashCore Overview Video– As Produced Transcript

How do you stay ahead of the game?

By having something your competitors' lack.

Get it with IBM FlashCore™ Technology.

These high performance innovations are flexible enough to scale as your business and data needs grow.

Unique only to IBM, FlashCore Technology is built on three key pillars:

Hardware accelerated performance, engineered specifically for flash.

MicroLatency Modules that enable higher density and consistent, microsecond response times.

And Advance Flash Management featuring optimizations to improve endurance without sacrificing performance.

It's time to see how IBM Flashcore Technology can set you apart from the competition.
