Prompt Payment Terms

Prompt Payment Act applies

Use of Government Purchase Card

IBM will accept credit card orders of $500,000 or less (subject to the individual user's credit card limit).

To place a credit card order with IBM, a Government purchaser must call its IBM sales representative and provide the cardholder's name and telephone number, the card type, account number and expiration date, and the products or services to be delivered.

The Government credit card program provides that invoices for credit card orders are not necessary; therefore, IBM will present such invoices to the Government only upon specific request for an individual order.
