Gaining the Power and Benefits of the Cloud with an Effective Transition to SAP S/4HANA

Overcome challenges and complexity while transitioning to SAP S/4 HANA

With SAP S/4HANA in the Cloud, organizations achieve greater flexibility, agility, improved integration, and reduced IT costs.

Many organizations have invested in running traditional SAP workloads on-premises, raising the concerns that a transition to S/4HANA will take too long and existing investments will go to waste. Moreover, these organizations face challenges in complexity and integration, especially as they work to utilize new technologies.

36% of organizations are concerned about integration while 25% are challenged by lack of expertise

When businesses transition applications like SAP S/4HANA to the Cloud they take advantage of new technologies at twice or more the rate of their competitors.

Businesses that run applications like SAP S/4HANA in the Cloud:

- 2x more likely to utilize Artificial Intelligence.
- 60% more likely to reduce IT costs
- 2.5x more likely to increase customer retention

And with AI in place:

By transitioning to SAP S/4HANA in the Cloud, organizations see vital benefits in reliability, innovation, lower costs, and improved ROI.

With SAP S/4HANA in the Cloud, businesses are

- 36% more likely to lower capital expenditure costs
- 30% more likely to reduce downtime

Summary

By choosing the right cloud partners, leading organizations are successfully transitioning enterprise applications like SAP S/4HANA to the Cloud without changing existing customizations or investments in the SAP platform.

To learn more, read the report Getting The Best Outcomes From Your Transition To SAP S/4HANA In The Cloud.