

Logistics giant Agarwal Packers and Movers Ltd. finds a new way to work with IBM Verse.

The logistics company switches from Google Mail to IBM Verse for better employee collaboration and productivity.

Enhance employee productivity levels

Streamline workflow and collaboration

The challenge:

Agarwal Packers and Movers Ltd., one of India's largest logistics companies, wanted a cost-effective emailing solution which was secure and could enhance employee productivity.

The solution:

The company chose IBM Verse™, an intuitive and smart-to-use cloud-based email solution, as their enterprise email and collaboration platform to address the demand for newer ways of collaboration among employees.

The new intuitive email solution will offer the employees a more streamlined and intelligent way to work together, enabling them to:

- Prioritize their work
- Build stronger collaboration
- Enhance productivity
