Ease of Use

89%

“There is nothing better than this unbelievable IBM program, it is an impeccable and meticulously made web application. It can conveniently merge data sets of multiple columns or rows and data types with a customisation or storage cloud, and it simply supports these types of data.”

- G2 Reviewer ★★★★★

Quality of Support

88%

“It simplifies the management of data from different servers. It lets us handle both data and data resources through the automation and simplifies us by automating different activities. It helps to build APIS and microservices from the data we have on various servers, so that we can use the data logically.”
