The experience revolution – Part 1 trends

Companies are racing to introduce new ways for customers to engage digitally. Four in five surveyed are implementing initiatives like mobile, IoT or location services by 2017.* But lots of other digital trends are in play, too.

Customer engagement initiatives companies are implementing within the next 12 months:

Always put the customer at the center

Digital innovation has the greatest impact when it solves a deeply rooted customer need with an experience that is personalized and frictionless.
