Value. Simplicity. Compliance.

Look to IBM for your PC and mobile device asset recovery strategy.

Does your business run a refresh program for employee mobile devices? Do you retire IT equipment that might have residual value?

There is an easy way to maximize return on the initial cost of your IT assets, decrease total cost of ownership, and offset the acquisition costs for new devices.

IBM Buyback Solutions are a fast and efficient way to transform used IT equipment and mobile devices into cash while helping you mitigate your financial risk in an environmentally compliant manner.

Recover maximum value for your organization’s retired PC and mobile devices

We buy your laptops, desktops, smartphones and tablets at fair market value.

Does this sound familiar?

We know that creating an optimized and sustainable asset recovery strategy is not always easy.

• Is your current disposition provider paying you what you feel your assets are worth?
• Are you incurring warehousing and inventory carrying costs for retired assets?
• Do you have a program for refresh but need a trusted disposition partner?
• Are you unsure about environmental and data privacy regulations?
