

How can growing businesses cut the cost and complexity of managing newly acquired trading partners?

Watts Water

41

>99%

92k

is a leading global provider of plumbing, heating and water quality products

Rapid growth led the company to take on trading partners from 41 new acquisitions

Migrates electronic data interchange (EDI) to a cloud platform with >99% availability

Processes 92,000 documents per month cost-effectively

Achieves return on investment in just 7 months and facilitates future business growth

