

Join us on February 18 for a healthy and productive conversation among diversity and inclusion leaders on recognizing and combating systemic racism in the workplace.

Seize the Moment

When:

Thursday, February 18
11:00 AM–12:00 PM ET

Name:

Seize the Moment

Topic:

How has your diversity and inclusion strategy changed in the last year? And, how do you see it evolving in the future?

Diversity, equity and inclusion remain at the forefront of all of our minds. Last year, companies and their Chief Diversity & Inclusion Officers were confronted with a moment that demanded them to rethink their strategies. They had to facilitate candid, open and enlightening conversations with their employees, and deeply contemplate the role their companies should play in recognizing and combating systemic racism.

This has opened the door for all of us to have more in-depth conversations with each other, share bold new ideas and identify the most effective actions for driving better outcomes.

Please join us on February 18 at 11:00 AM ET for a healthy and productive conversation among diversity and inclusion leaders across industries. This is a time to learn from each other's journeys and advance our collective goal of a more diverse, equitable and inclusive world.
