Mail: IBM Think 2019 Registration – c/o Omnience Events
1350 Center Drive, Suite 100
Atlanta, GA 30338 USA

Note: Please reference your registration confirmation number in your cancellation request.

Badge Scanning

You may be asked to have your badge scanned at exhibit booths and/or session rooms; please note scanning of your badge is entirely optional. You may elect to have your badge scanned by one or more exhibitors, or not at all. Scanning transmits to the exhibitor, whom you allowed to scan your badge, your name and contact information, which the specific exhibitors may use to follow up on interactions you had with them during the event. Our exhibitors use of scanned data is governed by their own Privacy Policy, while transmission of scanned data to these exhibitors should not be deemed as IBM securing permission for said exhibitors to send you marketing materials. IBM assumes no responsibility for exhibitor use of scanned information.

Attendee Policy

Individuals must be over age 21 in order to participate in the Conference and attend all related events.

Liability

IBM reserves the right to remove from IBM Think 2019 any attendee who fails to comply with any of the above terms and conditions or any other reasonable request of IBM and conference management. Attendees who are removed from IBM Think 2019 shall not be entitled to any refund of registration fees, hotel or travel costs, or any other expenses.
By clicking “Continue”, I acknowledge that IBM Corporation and Omnience Events and their respective parent, subsidiary and affiliated companies maintain no control over the independent suppliers that will be providing accommodations and services as a part of the travel program. Accordingly, I agree not to hold IBM Corporation and Omnience Events or their respective parent, subsidiary or affiliated companies responsible for any loss or injury which may be caused or contributed to by such suppliers or by any other cause, condition or event whatsoever beyond the direct control of IBM Corporation or Omnience Events or their respective parent, subsidiary or affiliated companies. I hereby release IBM Corporation or Omnience Events or their respective parent, subsidiary and affiliated companies, and their respective officers, directors, employees and agents from any and all liability for claims resulting from any acts or omissions of the independent travel suppliers providing accommodations and services in connection with the travel program, or from any other cause, condition or event beyond the direct control of IBM Corporation and Omnience Events or their respective parent, subsidiary or affiliated companies. Furthermore, by clicking “Continue” I am acknowledging and agreeing to the terms, with the full understanding that this liability release applies to all related participants on this registration, including guests.

Notice

IBM is collecting the information in the above form to facilitate the execution process for this event. We may also collect information about your specific activities during the event and use the data to customize our future interactions with you. Also, subject to your preferences of receiving marketing material from IBM, we may also use the data to keep you informed of our products, services and offerings. In addition, IBM may take group photos or perform live streaming during the event for promotional purposes. The information collected may be shared within IBM on a need to know basis. IBM is a global organization with business processes, management structures and technical systems that cross borders.

As such, we may share information about you within IBM and transfer it to countries in the world where we do business in accordance with IBM Privacy Statement. This data may also be shared with vendors offering on-site solutions such as check-in, badging, or mobile apps related to this event. Their access will be limited to only those uses approved by IBM as necessary to the event support they provide and IBM will instruct them to remove the data from their systems when no longer needed for that purpose.

Your personal information will be protected in accordance with IBM policies and requirements.
