RTP IBM POWER Systems User Group

RTP IBM POWER User Group
Code of Ethics

The RTP IBM POWER User Group meetings are intended to be a forum for the sharing of information and experiences regarding the use of IBM POWER Systems by individuals in the community of IBM POWER Systems users.

The RTP IBM POWER User Group meetings will not be a selling event.

Information about IBM POWER Systems related products will inherently be presented and discussed at these meetings. We request that all participants keep their commercial activities separate from these meetings.

Participants are requested not to use the name of the group for commercial gain.

Participants are requested to show courtesy and respect for others and their property.

Participants will not violate copyrights in conjunction with any RTP IBM Power User Group activity.